2019-2020 FISK ON FOURTH concert series

EAST CAROLINA Musical Arts Education FOUNDATION

FISK ON 4TH

2019-2020

Andrew Scanlon
Artistic Director

SATURDAY
SEPT 21
7:30PM

Organ Recital: Andrew Scanlon

Please note, this is our only Saturday concert

ECMAEF Artistic Director Andrew Scanlon is a member of the keyboard faculty at East Carolina University, and organist-choirmaster at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Prof. Scanlon will perform works by Henry Smart, J.S. Bach, Georg Böhm, and Jehan Alain.

Organ Recital: Lynne Davis

Playing with precision and "le bon gout" (The Calgary Herald), Lynne Davis exhibits a "level of authority in playing French works that is virtually unmatched in this country." (St. Louis Post Dispatch) Ms. Davis lived in France for nearly 30 years and studied with Marie-Claire Alain, Jean Langlais, and the Duruflés, and her unique living, vast working experience, and lineage of study in France makes her an authority in all French organ repertoire and imbues marvelous joie de vivre to her performances.

FRIDAY
OCT 25
7:30PM

FRIDAY
JAN 17
7:30PM

Organ Recital: Mark Dwyer

Well known as one of the most gifted church musicians of his generation, Mark Dwyer is Organist-Choirmaster at Boston's Church of the Advent, where he directs the all-professional choir in a vast repertoire of music every year. As a concert artist, he has performed throughout the USA and in England, and his work as an accompanist, conductor, and recitalist may be heard on the JAV, Arsis, and AFKA recording labels. American Record Guide refers to Mr. Dwyer as "...a formidable interpreter, with plenty of technique and—more important—a very musical approach."

THE 4TH ANNUAL CATHEE JEAN HUBER MEMORIAL CONCERT

FRIDAY
MAR 20
7:30PM

Organ Recital: Jean-Baptiste Robin

With his appointment as Organist of France's Royal Chapel at the Palace of Versailles, Jean-Baptiste Robin was secured a place in a long line of royal organists (Couperin, Marchand, and Daquin) as "court musician" whose playing mirrors and matches the opulence of that world-renowned building. Widely regarded as one of the most accomplished French organists, master teachers, and composers (with over 50 new works to his credit), Mr. Robin also serves as Professor of Organ at the Conservatoire à Rayonnement Regional in Versailles.
